

ROS CANTER

HorseDialog Professional Rider of the Year

Honouring one top rider who is celebrating a superlative season

ROS CANTER crowned an outstanding year by beating Carl Hester, John Whitaker and Will Morton to the Professional Rider of the Year award.

The Lincolnshire-based 37-year-old won Badminton in May on Lordships Graffalo by an astonishing 15 penalties, and the duo followed up with team and individual gold medals at the European Championships in August. Ros's other triumphs this season included a hat-trick of victories on Izilot DHI – the CCI4*-S at Blair, the CCI4*-L at Blenheim and finally the CCI5* at Pau, France.

Ros said: "I'm really delighted to have won the Horse & Hound Rider of the Year award. Thank you all so much for voting. I have had the most amazing 2023 season, and it is all thanks to my amazing horses and the support team behind me.

"Thank you to my very supportive owners and my team at home, my grooms and my mum in particular, who have worked so hard to enable me to perform at my best."
